Creation Without Limitations. Safety Without Risk

Building a strong image requires a partnership based on control and responsibility. Our offer combines creative freedom with certified reliability, addressing three key market challenges.

Creative Freedom

Precision of Vision: Our technology ensures complete creative freedom: from Pantone coloring to intricate decorations.

Brand's Face: Products serve as the ideal canvas for brand expression, ensuring clarity and consistency in communication.

Product Safety and Compliance

Certified Compliance: We guarantee product conformity with rigorous European norms and safety standards, supported by tests and certificates.

Natural Longevity: Our products are a choice in harmony with nature. Natural raw materials combined with exceptional decoration durability reduce environmental impact.

Certified Responsibility

Transparency and ESG:

Processes based on verified standards ensure traceability at every stage. We operate in line with ESG requirements and meet certification standards (Sedex / Smeta).

Green Energy and Innovation: We use clean energy and constantly develop our know-how to minimize our environmental impact. This gives the client confidence in their choice and a value that is easy to communicate.

Promotional Candles & Lanterns

CANDLESPHERE
enlight your brand

Entering the world of Candlesphere, you receive unlimited possibilities for branding and personalization, which appeal directly to the senses and build a lasting relationship with the user.

Ecological choice

Candlesphere candles are filled with vegan soy wax, also available in a version of European origin, thanks to which they perfectly fit into the latest ECO trends.

Creative Packaging

Branding the packaging offers an additional opportunity for logo placement and communicating key brand values.

Additional protection

As an interesting and practical addition to Candlesphere candles, you can choose a lid, thanks to which the fragrance essence contained in them retains its properties even longer.

Scent Philosophy

Scent customization allows you to perfectly match the candle's fragrance to your brand's philosophy and emotional vibe.
